

Simmons University (SCL)

Interlibrary Loan Policies for Borrowing Libraries

The Simmons University Library lends print and electronic materials, including books, book chapters, and articles. There is no lending fee, and any item that is not currently on hold for a Simmons patron is renewable. The loan period for returnables is six weeks, with up to two renewals.

Select materials held by the University Archives may be reproduced and delivered at the discretion of the University Archivist. Additional fees may apply.